

AoMRC National SAS Doctor Conference 2020

SAS Doctor Careers – Challenges and Opportunities
Monday 30 November 2020

Programme

8.50am Welcome and introduction
Mr Eddie Morris, President, RCOG and Vice Chair, Academy of Medical Royal Colleges

Session I:

Chair: Dr Laura Hipple FRCOG, RCOG National SAS & LED Lead/Chair

9.00am The GMC SAS and LED Survey – taking this forward
Rachel Woodhall and Louise O'Neill, General Medical Council

9.45am Supporting our doctors
Dr Alison Wright, Royal Free Hospital

10.15am Importance of patients voices in shaping our work and services
Women's Voices Representative, RCOG

10.40am BREAK

Session II:

Chair: Dr Waleed Arshad, Chair, AoMRC SAS Committee

11.00am Update on actions from HEE 'Optimising SAS Potential' paper
Dr Sanjiv Ahluwalia, Health Education England

11.20am Update on new senior SAS post negotiations
Dr Amit Kochar, British Medical Association

11.40am Behaviours in healthcare
Dr Neil Spenceley

12.20pm BREAK

Session III:

Chair: TBC

- 1.15pm Update on CESR, credentialing and recent reports
Phil Martin, General Medical Council
- 2.00pm Being a SAS doctor in a senior leadership position
Dr Heather Currie
- 2.30pm Training in leadership and management
Dr Paul Evans, Medical Director, Faculty of Medical Leadership and Management
- 3.00pm Research
Professor Cheng-Hock Toh, Academic Vice President, Royal College of Physicians
- 3.30pm Autonomous practice
TBC
- 4.00pm QA session with College SAS Leads
Dr Waleed Arshad
- 4.15pm Summary and closing
Professor Andrew Goddard, President, Royal College of Physicians;
Consultant Physician and Gastroenterologist, Royal Derby Hospital
- 5.00pm Specialty specific CESR sessions
Further details will be available in due course