The invisible global pandemic: Domestic violence and abuse - Best Practice for clinicians

Wednesday 24 February 2021

Programme

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Time</th>
<th>Session</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 6.30pm | Introduction
          Miss Ranee Thakar, Senior Vice President for Global Health, Royal College of Obstetricians and Gynaecologists, London |
| 6.40pm | Frameworks for clinicians to understand Domestic Violence
          Susan Bewley, Honorary Professor Emeritus in Obstetrics and Women’s Health, Kings College London, London |
| 6.55pm | Global perspectives on Domestic Violence
          Dr Hakizimana Francois Xavier, Senior Consultant in Forensic Medicine, Isange One Stop Center, Rwanda
          Suchitra N. Pandit
          Mr Hassan Shehata, Consultant Obstetrician and Maternal Medicine Specialist, Epsom and St Helier University Hospitals NHS Trust; Honorary Senior Lecturer, St George’s Medical School, London |
| 7.05pm | Identifying Domestic Violence in your practice
          Janet Fyle, Midwife and Professional Policy Advisor, Royal College of Midwives, London |
| 7.20pm | Getting help: appropriate pathways when you have identified domestic violence
          Professor Gene Feder, Professor of Primary Care, Bristol Medical School |
| 7.30pm | Discussion
          Chairs: Miss Ranee Thakar
          Professor Dame Lesley Regan, Professor of Obstetrics, Imperial College London; Secretary General, The International Federation of Gynecology and Obstetrics |