

PROGRAMME

9.00am REGISTRATION AND REFRESHMENTS

9.30am Welcome and introduction to the day
Mr Edward Morris, Vice President, Clinical Quality, RCOG

Session I: Opening Plenary

Chair: Mr Edward Morris

9.40am The PreCePT2 programme – scaling up a successful quality improvement package
Dr Karen Luyt, Consultant in Neonatal Medicine, University Hospitals Bristol, NHS Foundation Trust

10.05am Improving improvement
Professor Mary Dixon-Woods, Health Foundation Professor of Healthcare Improvement Studies and Director of THIS Institute, University of Cambridge

10.30am REFRESHMENTS AND NETWORKING

Session II: Parallel workshop sessions – Session A

Delegates can only attend ONE workshop from Session A and Session B. Please select only one from this session.

11.00am Session A: Human factors on obstetrics and gynaecology
Demonstrating the role that human factors play in improving patient safety and reducing the risk of harm to patients
Lead: Mr Wai Cheong Yoong, Consultant Obstetrician and Urogynaecologist, North Middlesex University Hospital NHS Trust

Session A: Using behavioural science to help improve quality
To share examples of how behavioural research has been used to support quality improvement with insights to help delegates to design interventions for their local work using principles from behavioural research
Lead: Mr Darshan Patel, Improvement Associate, Imperial College Healthcare NHS Trust

Session A: Issues of consent and human rights in women's health care
The 'Masterclass' format will enable expert speakers to lead a 'deep dive' into these highly relevant and thought-provoking areas, with time for question and discussion from participants

- Issues of consent in women's health care
- Human rights in childbirth
Ms Amy Gibbs, Chief Executive, Birthrights Charity

Session A: QI skills and measurement
Overview of QI tools and techniques, with a focus on measurement in QI, and advice to delegates for approaches in their local work
Lead: Ms Sabrina O'Dwyer, Consultant Obstetrician and Gynaecologist, Imperial College Healthcare NHS Trust

PROGRAMME

Session A: Understanding organisational culture and co-production and QI

Sharing work on understanding organisational culture, how to measure, how to undertake 'culture shift'

Lead: Mr Ed Prosser-Snelling, Consultant Obstetrician and Gynaecologist, Norfolk and Norwich University Hospitals NHS Trust

- Co-production for service development and quality improvement

Lead: Ms Florence Wilcock, Consultant Obstetrician, Kingston Hospital NHS Foundation Trust

12.30pm LUNCH AND POSTER WALK ROUNDS

Session III: Parallel workshop sessions – Session B

Delegates can only attend ONE workshop from Session A and Session B. Please select only one from this session.

1.00pm Session B: Human factors on obstetrics and gynaecology

Same as in the morning session

Session B: Using behavioural science to help improve quality

Same as in the morning session

Session B: Regional guideline development

Developing regional guidelines across organisational boundaries; multi-disciplinary development of guidelines; and involvement of women in guideline development

Leads: Ms Eileen Dudley, Patient Safety and Clinical Improvement, Oxford Academic Health Science Network (AHSN)

Ms Katherine Edwards, Patient Safety and Clinical Improvement, Oxford Academic Health Science Network (AHSN)

Session B: The 'why' and 'how' of evaluation for QI

To share the rationale for well evaluated QI work and offer practical guidance in how delegates could go about evaluating their local work

Leads: Ms Louise Thomas, Head of Quality Improvement, RCOG

Dr Posy Bidwell, Clinical Research Fellow, RCOG, Obstetric Anal Sphincter Injury (OASI) Evaluation

3.00pm REFRESHMENTS AND NETWORKING

Session IV: Oral Presentations

Chair: Ms Jane Plumb, Lay Representative RCOG JSC on Patient Safety

3.20pm Improving uptake of cervical screening in pregnant and post-natal women in Somerset

Dr Sarah Coleridge

3.30pm Decision making in gynaecological oncology multidisciplinary team meetings: a cross-sectional, observational study

Dr Rebecca Scott

3.40pm Introduction of multiple birth team with a focus on continuity and quality of care

Dr Tatjana Nikisina

3.50pm A service evaluation audit to implement medical management of miscarriage in a district general hospital

Dr Tabassum Khan

PROGRAMME

4.00pm Safe Handover, Safe Patient: improving clinical handover culture at Ulster maternity unit
Dr Aarti Shetty

Session V: Final plenary

Chair: Ms Helen Crisp, Editor-in-Chief BMJ Open Quality

4.10pm Panel session: Disruptive innovation and future QI for women's health care
'Improving quality while facing increased demand and complexity'

- New approaches to personalisation of care
Professor Basky Thilaganathan, St George's Healthcare NHS Trust and Tommy's Centre for Maternity Improvement
- Future priorities for quality improvement and patient safety for women as service users
Ms Ngawai Moss, chair of NMPA Clinical Reference Group and RCOG Women's Voices Panel Member
- Disruptive technologies: their use in delivering patient care and in training
Dr Naila Kamal, Associate Director of Medical Education, London North West University Healthcare NHS Trust

4.50pm Award of prizes, reflections on the day and closing remarks
Professor Lesley Regan, RCOG President (tbc)

5.00pm CLOSE