Overview
The Royal College of Obstetricians and Gynaecologists (RCOG) and The PROMPT Maternity Foundation (PMF) are working together to improve awareness and facilitate the distribution of obstetric emergencies training as widely as possible.

PROMPT (PRactical Obstetric Multi-Professional Training) is a multi-professional obstetric emergencies training package that has been developed by PMF for use in local maternity units with the aim of reducing preventable harm to mothers and their babies.

This training package consists of interactive drills and workshops that provide “hands-on” experience of practical skills and decision-making in simulated obstetric emergency situations.

The fee’s include:
- Provision of the PROMPT 2 ‘Course in a Box’ containing: Participants Course manuals, Trainer’s manuals, CD Rom of lectures and multi-media.
- Training for up to 4 multi-professional members of staff from each unit to facilitate the implementation of the PROMPT course in their own maternity unit.
- One year’s telephone and email support when setting up the course ‘in-house’

Who Should Attend?
The PROMPT 2 training package provides the opportunity for a multi-professional team of staff from a maternity unit or institution to be trained as PROMPT Trainers. Teams participating in the training may consist of:
- Labour Ward Midwives/Obstetric Nurses/Healthcare Support workers
- Maternity Risk Managers/Educators
- Obstetricians
- Obstetric Anaesthetists

Fee and payment

£4,000 (£3,334 + VAT) per team for teams that are new to PROMPT training. All delegates attending this course must complete an individual registration form and the forms must be sent together, along with payment details.

To be invoiced, please complete one registration form per delegate, accompanied with a headed letter from your Trust, stating that they would like to be invoiced for the payment. This letter should contain the following information and will only be accepted if it is on official trust headed paper: Purchase order number (if applicable), name and date of course, name of delegates attending the course, the amount to be invoiced for, name, address, telephone and email of the person the invoice should be sent to. Please note: All invoices must be paid by the event date in order for the delegates to attend, if payment has not been received by this date the delegates will be asked for payment on arrival at the College.

We are unable to accept invoice requests three weeks before the event.

Teams applying for the discounted rate of £2,000 will be required to provide details on the registration form of attendance at the PROMPT 1 Train the Trainers (T3) which ran from February 2008 to March 2012.

Fees must be paid in full before or on the morning of the first day of the meeting. The RCOG reserves the right to refuse admission in the event of non-payment. This fee includes refreshments, lunch and admission to the lectures, as well as any technical exhibitions. You are not guaranteed a place until you receive confirmation. If you have not received confirmation of your place before the start of the event, please telephone the Conference Office on 020 7772 6245

Cancellations

The College can only refund the £3,334 or £1,667 + VAT registration fees when all participating delegates per hospital/unit cancel. We regret we cannot reimburse individual delegates. Cancellations must be received in writing two weeks before the course and be accompanied by a copy of your confirmation letter and receipt. An administrative charge of £350 will be made on all cancellations received before or on the cancellation date. We regret the College cannot refund fees after this date. Substitutions are welcome at any time. In the unlikely event the course is cancelled by the RCOG, we regret we are unable to refund any travel and/or accommodation costs that have already been incurred by the delegate, or any administration charges relating to cancellation of travel tickets or accommodation.
